

(written in the fall of 2001)

Fooled For A Moment

by Roger Funk, II

Verse 1:

I was fooled for a moment:
I thought that you were in love with me;
When I looked into your eyes I could see you were someone I'd always need!

Verse 2:

I thought I felt the rhythm of your heartbeat
beating to the rhythm of the heart in me;
but now I find it's all just a dream,
nothing more than a fantasy!

Ramp:

'Cause I saw you in a different light:
when I found you in his arms it was the loneliest sight!
I'm over my head – I let my feelings just run away with me!
You never figured into my plans!
I never thought that I could fall in love with just one glance!
But now I'm so helplessly lost – I don't know what's come over me!

Chorus:

I was fooled,

and a fool was born the moment I laid eyes on you!

Every minute that passes another fool was born just like me!

Once again, I let down my defenses, and I let you in.

In a moment a fool, but it will take some time for this heart to mend!

(Repeat Chorus)

End:

In a moment a fool for a heart that was cruel;

in a moment a fool, but it will take some time for this heart to mend!