

Time After Time

by Roger Funk, II

Verse 1:

Time After Time, you broke my heart in two,
every time you whispered to me, "Darling, I love you!"
And time after time you cut me deep.
Now all I have are memories to keep.

Verse 2:

Time after time, you left me all alone,
hoping that you'd soon return or call me on the phone.
But time after time I couldn't see that all you are is one bad memory.

Chorus:

I hate to wake each morning and find that you're not there.
'cause when I turn to kiss your lips my heart begins to tear.
Because time after time I thought that you would someday love me just like I love you.

Verse 3:

Time after time I prayed to God each night,
wanting you to come back home and somehow treat me right.
But time after time you made me blue.
You'll never change, you'll always be untrue!

(Repeat Chorus)

(written when I was 15 years old, 1977)